What has been happening this week?

This week Year 5 children visited Deptford Creek. The children had a great time understanding more about the creek and the local area. Thank you to our parent/carer volunteers who attended.

Today we celebrated Number Day - it was great to see so many children coming dressed to school with either a number on them or in the theme of a number! Miss Blackie, our maths lead planned lots of exciting opportunities for the children today, including a number hunt, puzzles and games.

This week the children enjoyed a healthy eating assembly, led by our catering team Radish and celebrated Chinese New Year with a Chinese themed menu for lunch today! Chinese New Year is celebrated between 10-15th February this year.

What is happening in school next week?

Next week is our children's mental health week - we have a whole host of activities and assemblies planned for the children to develop their wellbeing and explore strategies for supporting their mental health. This following website is a brilliant resource and includes videos to support parents understanding. <https://parentingsmart.place2be.org.uk/>

Friday 9th February is Internet Safety day - Mr Jones, our Computing lead, has organised a whole host of learning for the children across the school, in addition to their curriculum.

We are looking forward to welcoming students from University College London, who will be introducing the children in year 5 to the concept of wind turbines. We always enjoy welcoming UCL to our school as they have run so many free, exciting workshops over the years.

First Aid at Brindishe Manor

We take first aid provision at BM very seriously. We take part in a health and safety audit annually and we also have audits from Lewisham Council as well as visits regularly from our Health and Safety advisor. First Aid is always available for the children whilst at school, as many of our TAs are trained in First Aid.

In the past your child may have come home with a pink first aid form for an injury that has happened in school. If your child bumps their head, they will initially be assessed by a first aider and a 'school first aid accident form' will be completed and a 'Head Bump' sticker will be given to the child. A phone call to parents/ carers will also be made by office staff, unless it happens at the end of the day and we know that you are collecting. On this occasion you will be told verbally.

On rare occasions, we may ask you to collect your child and suggest you seek further medical advice for a bump to the head or other injury.

At the moment we complete first aid forms for anything that a child says has happened to them in the day e.g. a scratched finger or a knock to a leg, even if first aid has not been administered because there is no mark or cut (for example). Moving forward after half term, where first aid has not been needed or given, you will no longer receive a first aid form. We will only issue first aid forms if we have had to give first aid or if your child has a head injury.

Rest assured that if your child has hurt themselves and our trained First Aiders feel that you need to be informed, you will still receive a first aid report!

School Lunches

A reminder - we are offering you the flexibility to be able to choose on a daily basis whether your child would like to have a school meal.

Each morning the lunch register will be called and your child just needs to let their teacher know that they are having a school meal or packed lunch!

Fake profiles and cyberbullying

Setting up a profile impersonating somebody else with the intention of being unkind to others/to cause embarrassment to the individual is a form of cyberbullying.

If your child has set up a fake profile, talk to them about how this is a form of bullying and therefore not acceptable.

It is important that we talk to our children about the issue of cyberbullying and let them know that if they are ever a victim of it then it is not their fault, and they should tell you (or a trusted adult) straightaway. Talk to your child about reporting and blocking tools on social media or online games and show them how to use them to report any form of bullying.

Right Respecting - LGBT+ Month

LGBT+ History Month takes place in February each year.

LGBT+ History Month is all about promoting fairness, equality and diversity and raising awareness of LGBT+ people and culture, now and in the past. It aims to give voice to LGBT+ experiences, celebrate achievements and highlight the challenges people still face today. It is also about helping everyone to learn more about LGBT+ culture and history.

Article 2: (non-discrimination) The Convention applies to every child without discrimination, whatever their ethnicity, gender, religion, language, abilities or any other status, whatever they think or say, whatever their family background.

Article 13: (freedom of expression) Every child must be free to express their thoughts and opinions and to access all kinds of information if it is within the law.

Article 17 - access to reliable information Every child has the right to reliable information from a variety of sources, and governments should encourage the media to provide information that children can understand. Governments must help protect children from materials that could harm them.

And remember, at the heart of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child are the values of dignity, equality and non-discrimination.

Why is it important to listen to, learn from and celebrate people's differences in school and in our community?

- It helps to remind us that we are all unique and should all be treated with dignity.
- It reminds us that everyone has different experiences and everyone has the right to be listened to and express their opinions.
- When our differences are celebrated, we feel valued as people and our health and wellbeing improves.
- It helps all people to feel welcome in school.
- It reminds us that not all families or relationships look the same.
- It helps us to be open and respectful to new ideas about identity.
- We are all learning all of the time and by listening to others we continue to grow and learn.
- So that we can speak up and challenge unfair comments or actions.
- To help ensure that all children and young people's opinions are taken into account when making decisions about them.

At Brindishe Schools, we regularly discuss with children how we celebrate people's differences and how prejudice and discrimination are never tolerated in our schools.
